Welcome Note from Peter Lawrie, Director of Golf

As a former Tour Professional who has represented Ireland for many years, it is a great honour for me to again represent Ireland as Director of Golf for Fairways and FunDays. There are few places in the world that offer a selection of world-famous Links and Parkland courses - Ireland is one of these places. However, Ireland offers so much more for the golf traveller. The unique "Ultimate Golf & Ireland Experience" that Fairways and FunDays offer ensures that all our clients are treated to a truly memorable experience in Ireland. In addition to playing some of the world's best golf courses, all our clients enjoy luxurious accommodation options, delicious food, spectacular sightseeing, exhilarating entertainment and of course the warmest of welcomes.

Fairways and FunDays is the true industry expert in Irish Golf Travel given the fact that Ireland is the only destination that we sell. Our company has been named "Ireland's Best Inbound Golf Tour Operator" at the prestigious World Golf Awards for the past four years and continues to amaze clients with our incredible tours. Fairways and FunDays has built strong partnerships with all the key stakeholders involved in the Golf and Tourism industries in Ireland.

On behalf of Fairways and FunDays, we look forward to welcoming you to Ireland. We can promise you an unforgettable experience – magical memories are guaranteed.

Ireland – a magical destination to explore with Ireland's Best Golf Tour Operator

Golf in Ireland

With over 400 golf courses on our small Island, Ireland is truly a golfer's paradise! Not only has Ireland a considerable number of golf courses which feature amongst the best and most famous courses in the world, no other country offers a uniquely special environment to play golf like Ireland.

Do you dream of playing some of the world's most famous links courses such as Royal County Down, Portmarnock, Lahinch, Ballybunion or Waterville? Or would you like to play the host courses of some of golf's leading tournaments such as The K Club, Adare, Royal Portrush or Mount Juliet? Or maybe you would like to play the superb home courses of Irish golfing legends such as Rory McIlroy, Shane Lowry and Padraig Harrington.

This is all possible on a Fairways and FunDays Tour.

There are golf courses in Ireland where the sublime coastal views will physically distract you from your shot. There are hidden gems everywhere wrapped in mythology and legend. And there are courses that challenge the best with built in blind shots that require a healthy portion of Irish luck, sheer brilliance or the assistance of a good caddie to get your ball where it needs to be. Ireland has welcomed all golf's great players including Tiger Woods, Jack Nicklaus, Tom Watson, Phil Mickelson, Arnold Palmer and Seve Ballesteros. Quite simply, Ireland is made for golf.

Perhaps the biggest appeal of golf in Ireland is the abundance of world class links and parkland courses in such close proximity. No other destination in the world offers the golfer the opportunity to play the best of both links and parkland courses. Fairways and FunDays exclusively work with the leading golf courses in Ireland to ensure that clients only play the very best golf courses.
